A committee of four men were sen to canvass the territory about here and solicit shares in a stock company at $25 a share, to the amount of $3500, and to report at an adjourned meeting next Saturday evening. It seems that this might be a good centre for a windy creamery in the midst of a good farming and dairying section, and if all will be united no doubt it will be a success. One man offers to give the land for the building site and another a spring from which the water supply would be obtained. Let every farmer who is interested in a creamery here and all should be, be present at the meeting next Saturday evening.
